Appointment of Postal Clerk. Mr. James J. Gibbs, who for some time past, has served as assistant clerk in the Postoffice here, has been appointed Postal Clerk on the road from Bristol to Chattanooga, and will at once enter upon the duties. He is a son of John Gibbs, Deputy Sheriff of Knox county, and will, no doubt, prove a faithful and efficient offi-

Col. Thos. H. Callowny.

We are pleased to report that this gentleman is slowly but surely recovering from his illness, and that his friends hope during the summer to ses him at his post discharging his duties as President of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company. With his many friends here, we sincerely hope their prediction may be fulfilled.

Skilled Workmen.

The above-name class of citizens are indispensable to the growth and prospecity of any city or section. The fact is one generally admitted, and employers wish that, if possible, their services should be secured, even if times are dull. to have to leave Knoxville.

Double Wedding.

The event of last evening, in Nashville, was a double wedding. Miss Anna Gaut, daughter of Judge John C. Gaut, was married to Mr. Manlove, and Miss Harris, of Franklin, to John Gaut, Esq. Knoxville was well represented among the attendants by one of its most attractive young ladies, and Cleveland by one of the most accomplished ladies of East Tennessee The ceremony took place in the Cumberland Prosbyterian Church.

The Atkin House.

This haven for the traveling public has been fitted up in fine style by the veteran landford, Captain James Bell, and newly papered and furnished. We were shown several of the guest chambers, which were luxuriously prepared, and had all the conveniences incidental to a tip-top hotel. Every man can't keep a hotel, it is said, but the Captain can. The table is supplied with all the delicacies of the season, or out of season, and the urbane clerk, Mr. Oscar Bell, will see that every attention is paid the patrons of the Atkin.

An Office Convenience.

We were presented on yesterday, by Mr. M. D. Grover, with a package of the "National Bank Bill and Currency Adhesive Plaster," for especial convenience of banks, counting houses, libraries, &c. It is said to be the best article ever invented for repairing torn or worn bank 's, fractional currency, music, account books, plans, drawings, or any printed or written matter. It is transparent, and consequently does not obscure the reading or lines at all. Mr. Grover is the agent for Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia. A dollar package contains twentyfour shoets, exceeding in size the largest bills published. Sample sheets ten cents each,

King's Tennessee State Directory.

We had a call yesterday from Mr. King, of the firm of King, Marshal & Bruce, Nashville. He is here for the purpose of canvassing for "King's State Directory," which the abovementioned firm proposes to publish soon.

This Directory is a mammoth undertaking. but there is no firm in the State abler to render it a success than the gentlemen named. They have published the Nashville City Directory for several years with eminent success. The work they are now engaged upon will be a most convenient book for reference, and one of the best mediums through which business men can advertise. Price $5 per copy, payable on delivery.

DIFFICULTY AT CLINTON.

Capt. A. N. Reagle Shot and Mortally Wounded.

Capt. A. N. Reagle, a citizen of Anderson Co., and during the late war a captain in the 5th Tenn. Infantry, was shot at Clinton on Monday. by Nathan Brooks, a brother-in-law of G. W. Leath, late Sheriff of the County. The shot took effect in the abdomen, and will prove fatal. it is thought. No one seems to know how the difficulty originated, as the parties have heretofore been friends, and no cause has been alleged for the rash conduct of Mr. Brooks.

After committing the act, Brooks afternpted to make his escape, but was arrested and has given bail for his appearance before the next Circuit Court for Anderson County.

THE CLINTON TRAGEDY.

Capt. Ragie's Murderer Committed for Trinl.

The preliminary examination, at Clinton, of W. L. Brooks for the murder of Capt. A. N. Rugle, to which we have before alluded, was concluded on Saturday night, having occupied all of Friday and Saturday.

The circumstances, as shown by the proof. were of uncommon atrocity, and from the beginning the defence abandoned all efforts to do more than show the case to be a ballable

The presecution was conducted by Messes, McGuffey, Ray and Doughty, and the defense by Messrs. Houk, Dowell and Hogsett.

The defense made an unsuccessful effort to show threats and dangerous character on the part of the dead man, and drunkenness on the part of the defendant, sufficient to reduce the erime below the grade of murder in the first degree, and thus make the case a bailable one. The proof, however, as developed, forbade such a supposition.

The concluding argument for the prosecution was made after suppor on Saturday night, and the Justices, L. Moore, Wm. Cross and J. W. Key, after retiring a short time for consultation, returned with a decision that the case was not bailable, and that the prisoner must be committed for trial.

On the application of the prisoner, the mitimus was made out to Knox instead of Anderson county, the jailor of Anderson being a relative of the decased, and the jail being in an unfit condition for the reception of prisoners.

A considerable number of spectators were present, and during a portion of the examination, the wife of the prisoner and the widow of Captain Ragle were in the court room.

Brooks, we learn, is about to apply to Judge Hall for a writ of habeas corpus to test again the question of his being entitled to bail. He was brought to this city yesterday by the Sheriff of Anderson county and committed to jail.

Affray at Athens.

A fight occured at Athens on the 4th inst. which caused considerable excitement in the place. A man by the name of Harbison, who went there lately from Georgia, assaulted Mr. Dent Porter, formerly of Riceville. Harbison, who is an ex-guerilla, struck Porter several times over the head, but failed to knock him down, whereupon he drew a derringer, and placing it within an inch of Porter's head, pulled the trigger. The cartridge failed to explode, when the infuriated assailant struck his antagonist violently with the pistol on the back of his head, cutting it badly. By this time Porter had his revolver out and shot Harbison through the hand. The latter bolted at this crisis, and Porter followed, shooting once as he ran. Harbison was arrested and as he was being brought back to town under guard. Porter rushed around a corner and shot at him again, when a colored constable forced him to deliver up his pistol. Fournately no one was seriously injured, though They will improve, and then their skill will the firing was dencin the midstof a large crowd. come in use. We dislike for a good mechanic Porter swears he will trill Harbison. He was intoxicated at the commencement of the difficulty but was sober when it ended. Harbison is said to be a great disturber of the peace and very bitter in his political views, and if he does not become peaceable, it is rumored be will receive the tenience of judge lynch.

Church Fair.

We learn there will be a Fair held at Hoxsie Hall on the evenings of the 19th and 20th of this month, under the auspices of the Ladies Sewing Society of the M. E. Church. The object is to raise funds for the benefit of the Church. The programme will consist of a strawberry festival charados, music, &c., &c.

The seats in this church are without cushions and other improvements are needed, which the ladies propose to supply. The management of the exercises on this occasion is in competent hands, and we expect something entertning, combining innocent amusement with the useful. The public spirit of our citizens should insure the ladies a liberal patronage.

Texas Cattle.

A lot of Texas cattle, numbering about two hundred head, arrived in this city on Sunday, and were turned into the cattle yard near the depot, to rest and obtain a supply of food and water. They are in charge of M. E. Eddins, a Tennessecan, who is doing a good work in opening up this trade. If this trade was ingreased to 10,000 head per annum, as it no doubt will be, it will bring a revenue to railroads between here and New Orleans of nearly $200,000.

Episcopal Convention.

The Convention of the Episcopal Church for the Diocese of Tennessee will meet at Jackson. on the 11th inst.

The Jackson Teibune says of the Convention: The dackson Technic says of the Convention:

"Many gentlamen, distinguished allike in church and state, will be present. President Davis, who is a delegate from St. Lazarus Church, Memphis, we understand, will certainly attend. This announcement will doubtless draw a vast concourse of people. His name is still potent with every true Southerner. We are told that there will be many confirmations. It is pleasing to note that our good housewives are setting things in order preparatory to the entertainment of the delegates and visitors. Our hospitality may be tested, but it cannot be fathomed."

The delegates appointed to the Convention from St. John's Parish are Dr. Samuel Moses, S. J. Todd, and A. J. Ricks.

The drouth is California will make the crops there very light this season.

EDUCATIONAL.

Meeting of the Teachers' Association.

The Knoville Teachers' Association held its regular meeting in the East Tennessee Institute vesterday, Prof. Buttler in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Humes. The Chairman of the Committee on organization of Public Schools being absent, no report was made, and no action could be taken. The Committee appointed to confer with the City Board as to the feasibility of establishing free schools in the city, reported through their Chairman, Dr. Humes, that no definte result had been reached as yet. They awaited the report of the Committee on the plan of organization, which committee had not yet reported.

Dr. Humes read a letter from Rev. Dr. Sears, stating that if three thousand dollars were raised by the city for free schools, one thousand would be added to it from the Peabody fund; but that he prefered that nine thousand dollars should be raised, in which case two thousand would be added from the Peabody find: this last amount having been raised for the city once before, when there was an attendence of over eleven hundred pupils in our city free schools.

Prof. Butler made a report in reference to the correspodence held with several teachers concerning the proposed convention. The responses being so generally favorable, it was deemed proper to issue a call at once, and if was resolved that a circular letter should be addressed to the teachers of East Tennessee, inviting them to be present in a convention to be held in Knoxville on the 15th of June next.

Miss Morgan, Principal of East Tennesse Female Institute, kindly tendered the use of the building to the convention. The Association adjourned till Saturday May

To the Voters of Knox County.

Fellow-Citizens: Believing that I received a plurality of the legal votes cast in the late election for Trustee in your County, and Capt. James S. Boyd having received a certificate of election from the Commissioner of Registration, 1 saw proper to contest with him the right to hold the position. The case was brought before your County Court, which after one day's deliberation, decided, with the consent of Capt, Boyd and myself, that the election should be declared and myself, that the election should be declared void, and ordered another election, to be held on Saturday, 14th instant. I am a candidate before the people for reselection. I have held the office for two years, and have always endeavored to discharge the duties thereof with honesty and fidelity. I thank my friends for support in the past and respectfully solicit a continuance of their favors. The people must judge between my competitor and myself, and to their decision I will gracefully submit.

Not Alarmed.

From a remark made by the City Tax Collector yesterday, we are of the opinion he is perfectly serene about the new counterfeit that has just made its appearance. He hasn't received a bogus bill for taxes in a long time-nor a genuine either, for that matter,

FINANCIAL.

Knoxville Quotations of Money and Stocks.

OFFICE KNOXVILLE CHRONICLE, | Thursday, May 9, 1870. |
The quotations of Government Bonds thus far this month have changed but little, (the reduction of 3 cents on the issue of '62, '64 and '65 being caused by the payment of the six months interest due the first), while the latter part of April they advanced from 3 to 5 cents. The week ending April 30th was one of great activity on the Stock Exchange in New York. Government Bonds were the great feature of the market. Heretofore the purchases have been made almost entirely for investment. They are beginning, however, to attract the attention of speculators, who have commenced buying for the purpose of holding large lots for higher prices. Last year 1862's were selling over 1.25, and 1867 a over 1.23. The money which would naturally have been invested in them last January, but for the disturbances of public confidence by the introduction of Boutwell's Funding bill into Congress, has been held over, and now, when all probability of the passage of it has been removed, this uninvested capital, which has been increasing daily, is being invested in Government Bonds as fast as they are offered, while the amount of these bonds placed permanently out of the market has been increasing much faster. Bonds therefore are scarce, and in short supply. The following statement (estimated) of how the national debt is held, will throw considerable light on the future course of the bond market: Total amount of Government bonded debt. $2,100,000,000

Amounts held in Europe. 1,200,000,000
In Sinking Fund. 110,000,000
Banking Dep't at Washing-With permanent investors,... With savings bank, insurance, trust, and other financial

90,000,000 $1,950,000,000 Total amount of bonds unac-150,000,000

Out of this balance of $150,000,000, which we will suppose are in the market, the government will probably buy and cancel during the remainder of this year $75,000,000. If Europe takes the usual amount, say $80,000,000, then the prices must advance to very high figures to induce investors to sell.

Consumption of Coal.

The city of Knoxville consumes nearly 1,500 bushels of coal daily at this season, and in winter of course, a much larger quantity. Of this amount, the Knoxville Iron Company consumes 225 bushels per day. The Gas Works consumes a large quantity, and then there are the foundries, rail shop and private establishments, besides what is used for cooking.
